PCDL SCHOLARSHIP

Melbourne High School does not offer scholarships prior to confirmation of acceptance of placement.

There is one scholarship to be awarded to one incoming Year 9 student*. The PCDL Scholarship is awarded each year to a commencing Year 9 student to support the costs of his education at Melbourne High School. The criteria for selection are:

1. The students must have a parent, or parents who have either a Commonwealth Health Care Card or a Pension Card, and who qualify for income support benefits or be on a temporary protection visa. Certified evidence will be required to prove eligibility.
2. The student is to submit an online application detailing his ambitions and reasons for attending Melbourne High School.
3. Continuation of the award in consequent years is contingent upon satisfactory academic progress, continuing co-curricular involvement and continued eligibility for a Commonwealth Health Care Card or Pension Card, or in the case of a student aged 16 years and over, eligibility for the Commonwealth Youth Allowance Scheme.

Selection for the scholarship is conducted by the School's Scholarship Committee, under the direction of the Principal. The decision of the Principal is final and is not subject to appeal.

The annual provision to the scholarship holder will be $2,000 per annum. This will be accessed as a request by the School to the MHS Foundation. The costs of school expenses, books, uniforms and other school requisites. The scholarship will not involve access to cash. This ensures that the monies are used for their intended purpose.

To apply for this scholarship, eligible students are to complete the online application form and submit. Certified evidence of Commonwealth Health Care Card or Pension Card eligibility must accompany the application.
